

(c) Bars: mean per round; whiskers: min to max over the rounds; numbers: mean (ms). The learning code is identical in the three versions, so differences in the learning parts come from the machine load during each run, not from the ZKP.